

Jonas Hartzell's 1816 Letter to Philip Hartzell

At the time this letter was written, Philip's son Adam & family had already moved to Montgomery County, Ohio. The War of 1812 had ended 1 year and 8 months earlier. Thomas Jefferson was 70 years old. Abraham Lincoln was 7 years old. This was the year without a summer because of the Mt. Tambora eruption. The National Road had not yet reached Wheeling, PA. Indiana had just been admitted to the Union.

From Paul Swan's Hartzell Chapter (see my home page for the link):

On 6 Oct 1816 Jonas wrote a letter to his brother Philip who was at that time in Rocky Mount, Franklin, Virginia. This letter, dated at Allentown, is two legal size pages long. The first page starts off by chiding Philip for not writing since "25 august 1813 - which Letter was delivered to our Brother John Hartzell By the same man that you gave it to". There was no organized postal delivery service which could be depended upon to take a letter from Virginia to Pennsylvania. It then goes on to provide a chatty account of various items of family news, and says that their brother John will send Philip's share due from their mother "as sun as the Bank notes of the united States will be in Circulation".

The second page of Jonas' letter is almost entirely a genealogy of the family. Jonas mentions first the death dates of their parents, then gives the birth dates of all of the children of the family, with a calculation of the intervals between each birth. He then copies a "memorandum given By me Jonas Hartzell to my son Isaac & his Sons it Being from Jonas and philips grand father, down to our grand Children in the mail Blod down to the present fifth generation - to Jonas and philip Hartzels grand Children". He then lists "old george" and his son Jacob, both born in Germany, and gives the years of their birth and death. Then himself, "as god pleases yet Living in the year of our Lord 1816". Finally, he lists the dates of birth of his son Isaac and grandson Thomas.

At the end of the letter he says that he has sent this to Isaac to be "Entered in his Bible for our great grand Children", and requires that Philip must also send a copy "to your oldest son adam & then his sons if any". This provides the only documentary evidence we have that our ancestor Adam is the son of Johann Philip Hertzell.

--- Allentown now Schuylb County October 6th 1816. ---

Dear and Loving Brother your wife and Children, the last Letter we received from you was dated the 25 august 1813. which Letter was delivered to our Brother John Hartzell By the same man that you gave it to. And John Hartzell told me he assured your Letter. and I was in hopes that you would write again, But I do think the Time Long to hear from you - as we are now lived to a greater age than our father and grand father and the grate Distance Between us, we ought not miss to write, as Letters come safe by the post offices - your and my age are on the 26 of feby last I was 75 years old, and you on the 26 of april you was 73 years old, I do at end of this Letter give you a memorandum of our father and mother of the days of their death. and also of their Children when each was Born, and this you ought to enter in your Bible or some Books for the Satisfaction for your Children and grand Children - and further I send you a memorandum from our grand father. down to your Children which Being the fifth generation - I have also send one to my son Isaac, to enter in his Bible to be for our grand Children - to see when we are no more -
